

FAQ'S

1. Q: What type of staff do you provide for events?

A: We provide professional bartenders for standard events, mixologists for custom cocktail services, and servers for larger events.

2. Q: What areas does your company serve?

A: Our company serves the Greater Toronto Area. Please contact us directly if you have questions about specific locations.

(We'll go wherever!! It's $3/km, one way from uptown Toronto)

3. Q: Can you help create a custom cocktail menu for my event?

A: Absolutely! If you request our mixologist services, we can help you build a custom cocktail menu tailored to your specific event and preferences.

4. Q: Do you provide equipment rentals like glasses, liquor, or mixers, etc?

A: No, we only provide the staffing for your event. Any materials, mobile bar, rental equipment or groceries will need to be provided by you.

5. Q: Do your staff bring their own bar tools?

A: Our bartenders come with basic tools, a wine opener and an ice scoop. Mixologists have extensive bar kits, which include shaker, jiggers, and strainers.

6. Q: How much advance notice do you need for staffing an event?

A: We typically need a week for a mixologist gig, to ensure that we have time to plan out your . We need more time for events that are out of town.

7. Q: Can your staff help with setup and cleanup for the event?

A: Absolutely. Servers are essentially a “set of hands”, and are there to do whatever needs to be done, including keeping the place “sexy”. Bartenders main job is to tend the bar, and will only be able to help on both sides for very small crowds.

8. Q: How do you determine how many staff members my event will need?

A: 50:1. Less for a mixologist, as there is greater complexity... same ratio for servers

9. Q: Do you have a minimum booking time for your services?

A: Yes, our event staff have a 5 hour minimum. If you need them for less time that's fine; they won't mind, but that is our minimum bill.

If there's anything else that's not listed here, feel free to drop us a line and we'll reach out.
